Selection Process for A & E and CM Services

- Discrete projects are identified
- Consultants currently included in the "selection pool" are considered for each project
- Based on individual qualifications and consideration of past performance either within SJUSD or for other entities, an initial selection is made
- The initial selection of each project is then scrutinized using a pre-established objective criteria. Should this step result in identifying less than satisfactory performance or criteria critical to the success of the project is not met, other consultants may be considered
