

FOR 8TH GRADERS

Community Service Hours

By Eric Britton, Marissa Brown & Ashley Zaragoza

Community service is a graduation requirement for all 8th graders. Students should receive their community service form from their social studies teacher "After students do their hours, they should get the paper signed," said Ms. McGinnis. Students must complete ten hours by the end of the year. Some things that are considered community service are helping at 6th grade orientation, working at community events, or helping out teachers.

Buy a Yearbook

By Elizabeth Fernandez, Cindy Monter & Cassy Morquecho

Hoover students can pre-order the 2009-2010 Hoover Yearbook for only $30. Students can buy one in room H-207 or online at www.jostensyearbooks.com. The price will go up in January, so students should buy early.

The yearbook will have a fun and creative theme based on an iPod. The yearbook will be filled with pictures of Hoover students, sports, and other school activities, so make sure to buy yours today.
