

NEWS FROM YOUR MICKEY LONG LIBRARY

By: Kathy Rasmuson

Library Media Assistant

The hot ticket for the week was a book talk with the author of “East Side Dreams”, Art Rodriguez. Students were chosen to attend by reading one of his four books, “East Side Dreams, Forgotten Memories, Monkey Box or These Oldies But Goodies”, and writing a 200 word essay. You could have heard a pin drop as the room was fixed on every word Mr. Rodriguez had to say. He is currently working on a screenplay, so one of these days we will see his life portrayed on the big screen.

Our library has been blessed with a fund to buy a lot of books! Look for these new additions sometime after the New Year. A lot of changes have taken place in the library so if you haven't been by in awhile, come on in and check it out. The reference section is now located in it's own area so you can find what you need to research a lot easier than before. We have newer current books on display, fiction is in one area now instead of spread all over and we have a “browser” for you to look up books. We'll show you how to use it. At least stop by and say “Hello”... you never know what you might find to read!
